

Resilience Fund Advisory committee:

CISSY KAGABA CISSY KAGABA CISSY KAGABA

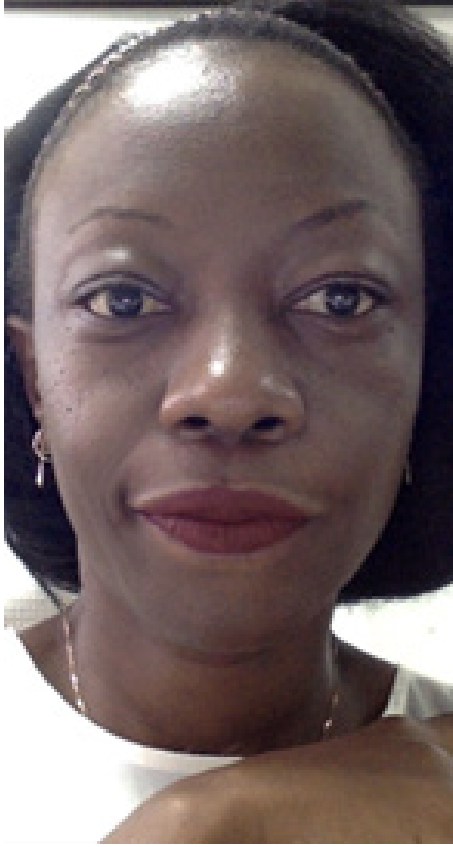

Cissy Kagaba is a lawyer by profession, passionate and astute Anti-Corruption and Governance expert with a rich experience in the sector spanning 20 years. She has a proven track record engaging with cutting edge governance, human rights, anti-corruption, accountability, and democracy both at national level and international levels. She has honed expertise in advocacy and campaigns, policy analysis, project planning and management and system strengthening. She has over twenty years of coalition and network strengthening. She has led an NGO coalition for over 15 years and has mastered the skill in coordinating coalitions and networks, building trust amongst the membership and beneficiaries, harnessing uniqueness of respective NGOs in order to build synergy and cohesion amongst the membership.

Cissy has worked with the Uganda Human Rights Commission as a human rights officer, Advocacy officer of the Anti-Corruption Coalition Uganda, Executive Director for the Anti-Corruption Coalition Uganda and Civil Society and Private Sector Advisor with Management Systems International-USAID Activity

Cissy has served as consultant, trainer and facilitator on wide governance issues with organizations such as MS- Denmark' TCDC Arusha; Trainer for USAID Linkages Program; International Law Institute, CARE International Uganda, She is a regular governance analyst and contributor with print and broadcast media in Uganda and internationally. Cissy has served as a board member under UNDP/Government of Uganda Institutional Effectiveness Program (2016 -2020), Board Member Partnership for Transparency Fund 2016 till date, Board member United Nations Anti Coalition Coordination Committee (2020-2022), Board Chair Reproductive Health Uganda 2022 till date,

Cissy is currently working with Tearfund International as the Secretariat Director for the South Sudan NGO Forum in Juba, focusing issues around relief ,humanitarian aid , coordination and advocacy

MUWANGA
MS. SHEILA
MUWANGA
MS. SHEILA
MUWANGA
MS. SHEILA
MUWANGA
MS. SHEILA
MUWANGA

Sheila Muwanga is a woman Human Rights Defender (HRD). She over 18 years working with and spearheading varied human rights campaigns in a number of institutions including the Foundation for Human Rights Initiative (FHRI), Human Rights Awareness and Promotional Forum (HRAPF), Action Group for Human Rights and HIV&AIDS, DefendDefenders among others. Through these platforms, Sheila has campaigned for human rights, peace, and social justice in Uganda and in international spaces. Sheila is the immediate past Vice President of the International Federation of Human Rights Defenders (FIDH) based in Paris, France. She is one of the founders of Hearts- Extended (H-E) a growing organization that works with children of imprisoned mothers in Uganda.

Sheila holds a Bachelor of Arts degree in Social Work and Social Administration from Makerere University and a Post Graduate Certificate in Women Rights from a collaborative program between World University Service (Austria) and Makerere University. She has a professional certificate from the International Law Institute -Uganda on applying human rights to governance and development and is an alumni of the prestigious US International Visitor Leadership Program supported by the US State Department.

